

The Trinity Window

TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 903 FOREST AVENUE, HENRICO, VA 23229

July 2016

Pastor's Corner

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20

May I share my excitement with you? I am writing days after our 2016 Annual Conference in Roanoke and the morning after our 2016 Trinity Charge Conference. (Whew!) So why, you ask, am I so excited?

- As of the Fixing of the Appointments at Annual Conference I began my fourth year as your Pastor. Paradoxically, I am inclined to say both "time flies when you're having fun" but also "it's hard to remember a time when we weren't in ministry together!" Praise God! I want you to know how privileged I feel to be here with you. Thank you for being such a grace filled and faithful congregation.
- On July 3 we install the Rev. Drew Willson as Trinity's new Associate Pastor. Drew has a passionate love of Christ, a deep spirituality and an energy that is all his own. (Trust me on that one!) He will bring much to our ministry together.
- Annual Conference this year was what I might describe as "low key". It was a joyful celebration of the ministry of Bishop Young Jin Cho as he moves from ministry into retirement. There is also great anticipation as we await the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference (in July) and the assignment of our new Bishop. We wait. Yet the theme of our Annual Conference was "Thy will be done". There was great worship and depthful Bible study. Even in an era of great uncertainty I found it profoundly reassuring and energizing. We certainly serve God in interesting times.
- Last night at our Charge Conference we celebrated Trinity's ministries. This truly is a great church! Superintendent Pete Moon is challenging all of the churches of the Richmond District to seek discernment and answer three questions:
  1. What is God's vision for our church?
  2. How do we know?
  3. What then must we do?

These are not new questions for Trinity, but they are questions that faithful disciples must constantly be lifting up.

My sense is that we live in times that make our ministry of absolutely vital importance. Furthermore in the life of the Annual Conference, and in that of the General Church, the ministry of Trinity has never been more important. It is humbling to be here "for just such a time as this." (Esther 4:14) Therefore I invite you to join me in praying daily for the General Church and its unity; for Jurisdictional Conference, the election of Bishops; for the Virginia Conference and the assignment of our new Bishop; for Trinity that we may be bold and faithful in our mission and ministry; for me, for Drew, for Judy that we may serve you well; and finally for yourself, that you may hear, discern and act on God's call. Let's do it together. We live in interesting times... I'm excited.

Apple Angel Tree

Trinity's Apple Angel Tree has re-appeared outside of Judy Oguich's office. Each "apple" lists school supply requests from a classroom teacher at Oak Grove Bellemeade Elementary School, Trinity's Micah Initiative partner school in South Richmond. Since 2004 Trinity has partnered with Oak Grove and helped provide volunteers, school supplies, summer camp experiences, and much more for an underserved population of school children. Directions: simply remove your "apple," purchase the requested supplies, place items in a brown paper bag with handles (staple your "apple" to the bag) and return to tables at the rear of Trinity Hall by Sunday, August 21. On behalf of the 650 students at our school, we thank you for helping.

Judy Niedermayer is Retiring!

Many Trinity members cannot recall the time when Judy Niedermayer was not the financial secretary. Since 1985, from her sunny, corner office, Judy has overseen all aspects of Trinity's financial life. She began her tenure as an employee with an accounting temporary agency, and within several months, was hired by the church. At the time, Dr. Doug Dillard was the senior pastor, Bill McClure was Staff Parish Chair, and Carl Robinson chaired the Finance Committee. Judy said that her biggest challenge has been the annual Stewardship campaign, as the mailings, pledge cards, phone calls, and data from committee members must be accurate and timely. "I must remain very focused," she explained. Her greatest joy has been working with the people of the church. She has found members to be helpful, enjoyed meeting new people and enjoyed friendly correspondence from many. The interesting people she has encountered along the way shared many engaging and entertaining stories. One of Judy's favorites with whom to chat was Ben Price, a former associate minister and father of Pat Ruscus. "I love history, and he loved to talk about the Civil War with me. Another great storyteller was Vernon Collier, who told great stories of being a railroad employee," Judy shared. As every aspect of her job is date sensitive, such as checks going out, payroll, and accounting for the Sunday offering, Judy has never been able to take a vacation day on a Monday. Last year, she took her first, full one week vacation in thirty years!

Judy will be retiring as the Financial secretary in the near future. Her departure date will depend on the timing of a new hire for her position. In her retirement, she would love to travel, but has no major plans at this time. She will continue with the church in a part time capacity to help the new secretary transition to the big job. Congratulations to Judy on her thirty-one year tenure and best wishes for the next phase of her life.

Judy Niedermayer
