

The Trinity Window

TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 903 FOREST AVENUE, HENRICO, VA 23229

October 2016

Pastor's Corner

I know that pride is one of the Seven Deadly Sins, but sometimes I just can't help myself. There are times when I am just plain proud of being a part of the Church. A few examples:

We've been watching riots on television and have been forced to acknowledge that the divisions of race and class in this country are still very real. Meanwhile the faithful of Trinity quietly go to Oak Grove-Bellemeade Elementary School to tutor, to be book buddies, and to assist teachers. They are crossing boundaries of race, class, and jurisdiction. In so doing they are changing the world rather than simply accepting the world as it is. This, by the way, is what Jesus commanded us to do.

We've been listening as our society has become more fearful and suspicious. It is tempting to stick to our own community. That sort of sectarianism isolates others and becomes fertile ground for people to become radicalized. Our Dillard Forum, Oct. 30-31 (see the related article, this page) will welcome Dr. Peter Ochs of UVA. His Hearth to Hearth Peacebuilding model brings together Christians, Muslims, and Jews. We have issued a personal invitation to the Jewish and Muslim communities of Richmond. Make no mistake, we preach Christ, and Christ crucified. It is precisely because we have such clarity of our own faith that we can practice such hospitality and openness. This, by the way, is what Jesus commanded us to do.

One of the great challenges in our society and in our own community is the epidemic of addiction. We cannot avoid talking about this sensitive subject. Far too much is at stake. In this issue of the Window you will find a flyer regarding a screening of the film Generation Found at Short Pump, October 27 at 7:00 PM. Amy and I plan to attend; I hope that you will as well. If we are to reach out in love and concern for the world, we can't avoid tough problems. And while we may take their presence for granted how wonderful it is for Trinity to be hosting the Greenwood AA and NA that meet in our church on weeknights. This, by the way, is what Jesus commanded us to do.

We are the church in the world. It is what Jesus commanded us to be. Lord, forgive me a little pride.

Blessings,

Dillard Forum Welcomes Dr. Peter W. Ochs

Dr. Peter W. Ochs is a prolific author who currently teaches modern Judaic studies at the University of Virginia. He directs Religious Studies graduate programs in "Scripture, Interpretation, and Practice," an interdisciplinary approach to the Abrahamic traditions. He coined the term "scriptural reasoning" and is co-founder of the Society for Scriptural Reasoning and of the Children of Abraham Institute which promote scriptural study groups and interfaith dialogue among Christians, Jews, and Muslims.

Planned schedule times:

9:30 AM: Religions as Sources of Conflict and Sources of Peace

Upward Sports Ministry

Since 2008 at Trinity UMC, Upward has introduced children from K5 to 5th grade to Christ through sports. Young basketball players and cheerleaders can chart their own athletic journeys through the years – all while being developed into total athletes mentally, physically, spiritually, and socially.

Join us for our 9th Season of Upward Basketball at Trinity UMC and St. Andrews UMC!

The registration link is <https://registration.upward.org/UPW62406>. More information and registration details are available at <http://trinityumc.net/upward-sports>.

Trinity Softball Team

The softball team finished a fun and successful season, placing third in the league tournament. The playoffs were highlighted by wins over Reveille

UMC and St. Peter's Baptist, avenging losses from earlier in the season. We wish our college student players all the best this year and look forward to having them back next summer. Recruiting for next year begins today! If you are interested in playing, contact Paul Brooks at jpbrooks@vcu.edu.

Mission Footprint 5K

The sixth running of the Mission Footprint 5K was completed on Saturday, September 10. Despite a warm, muggy morning 152 participants endured the humidity and the course. We want to thank all participants, our corporate sponsors, our volunteers, Henrico County Police, Commonwealth Timing, our MC, Tyler

Hart, the ministers and staffs from each church, and the planning team: Sheila Norfleet and Bill Carnahan (Trinity), Cassandra Ducca (River Road Church, Baptist), and Tim Latham and Parker Garrett (Third Church).

Trinity Choir

The Trinity Choir has begun rehearsals for its annual Service of Lessons and Carols (December 11 at 8 and 11), but it's never too late to join in (well, that's not really true, but it's certainly not too late yet!) Our aim is to start L&C music around 7:30-ISH (sometimes later, never earlier) and we would love some extra singers for this exciting event.

Leave It On The Reception Counter...

“Come pick it up, I'll leave it for you on the Reception Counter at Trinity.” It's good that we have a place to leave items for people to pick up, but sometimes these items are big and bulky, or they may stay on the Reception Counter for days... or even weeks or months! The Reception Counter is one of the first areas that people see when they enter the building – on a Sunday and especially during the week. And it can look pretty “junky” sometimes with books, bags, boxes, food containers (without the food, of course!). Just like in your home, we like for the entrance area of the Church to look neat and welcoming. So, if you leave something here for someone to pick up, please make sure they know it's there, and we expect it to be removed within 48 hours at the most. We appreciate your consideration in helping us to maintain a neat and uncluttered entrance to the office area.

Sanctuary Pews

On Sunday mornings when you sit in a pew, do you wonder who takes the time to sharpen the pencils, or to make sure there are blank sheets in the Guest Books, or who has straightened the hymnals and removed the previous week's bulletins from the hymnal rack? We have dedicated teams of volunteers who give their time each week to straighten the pew racks, but we are in need of a new team (one person can do this, but it's more fun to have a buddy!) for one week every month – to prepare for the 2nd Sunday of each month. If you would like additional information or to volunteer, contact Paula Cadden in the Church office at 288-6057 ext. 201, or pcadden@trinityumc.net.

Face of a Child News

With a heavy heart I have sad news to report about our orphans in Moldova. The government there has been trying to shut down the orphanages for several years, and they have finally succeeded.

We will not be able to send packages/backpacks this coming year. Please pray for your children and all the children there. My prayer is that they will regroup and work from the schools. For now---we pray. Thank you all so much for your generous support over the past 15 years with this worthwhile project. Lives have been greatly impacted because of you.

Shalom Farms

Fall is a busy time at Shalom Farms! Partnership with Tuckahoe Middle School

In a continued effort to get our church into the local community, Trinity is establishing a partnership with Tuckahoe Middle School, located at 9000 Three Chopt Road. Several elementary schools in our area feed into this school, which is racially, ethnically and socially diverse, with 26% of the student population receiving free or reduced meals. Recently, a meal was delivered to new teachers at the school, offering a token of encouragement as they begin new jobs. Four weekends a year, we plan to provide bags of nonperishable food for some of the children whose families do not qualify for weekend food assistance, but who receive breakfast and lunch during the school week. Finally, we would like to assemble a team of energetic and encouraging volunteers to provide homework and organization help to students each Wednesday afternoon from 3:30-5:00. We need you to make this a reality! If you feel you could help with this endeavor, contact Teresa Given at tdagiven@gmail.com

Calendar Highlights October

Serve Opportunities

Thank You for the All God's Children Camp 2016

Every year since 1998 Trinity volunteers have served as mentors at the All God's Children Camp held at Westview on the James. Trinity volunteers faithfully supplied transportation and camp supplies, as well. AGCC is a Virginia Conference camping ministry serving the children of incarcerated parents for the purpose of offering them and their caregivers a week of respite. A caring mentor can make a big difference in the life of such a child. In addition to the August Occohannock on the Bay site on the Eastern Shore, this year the camp was held at Camp Overlook in the Shenandoah Valley just north of Harrisonburg. The majority of this year's thirty campers were from Richmond. Trinity members offered financial support for the 2016 AGCC through a Lenten Easter Mission Grant. We had wacky Olympic Games in the big field, tasty meals in the dining room, a cookout, music, Bible Study, crafts, archery, Harmony, swimming in the lake, a hike up the mountain to a beautiful waterfall, and even a candlelight Communion Service on our last night. Mentors and campers alike enjoyed the rare combination of deep spiritual experiences and laugh-out loud fun. To learn more about the camp or to participate next summer, contact Beth Christian bethchristian@vaumc.org.

Oak Grove-Bellemeade

On behalf of everyone at Oak Grove-Bellemeade Elementary, thank you for your continued support of our students and staff as we begin a new school year! Our classroom teachers were delighted to have received so many supplies through the Angel Apple Tree collection. As a result, they have started the year with many supplies to share with students. We also appreciate the wonderful Back to School luncheon you provided for our staff on September 1st. The food was delicious and we really enjoyed seeing so many familiar faces from Trinity as well as many of our other Micah church partners.

If any Trinity members are interested in volunteering in a classroom or helping with our literacy program this year, contact Mary Valenza with Communities in Schools at Oak Grove- 230-5800 or mvalenza@cisofrichmond.org.

From the creators of The Anonymous People comes GENERATION FOUND, a powerful story about one community coming together to ignite a youth addiction recovery revolution in their hometown.

GENERATION FOUND takes an unprecedented and intimate look at how a system of treatment centers, sober high schools, alternative peer groups, and collegiate recovery programs can exist in concert to intervene early and provide a real and tested long-term alternative to the "War on Drugs." It is not only a deeply personal story, but one with real-world utility for communities struggling with addiction worldwide.

Watch the trailer here: <http://generationfoundfilm.com>

Be sure to reserve your spot and invite your friends so we can make an event of this! Stick around after the screening for a panel discussion about youth recovery in our community.
