Pastor's Corner

On June 10 Trinity's Healthy Church Team held our first meeting. The Healthy Church Team (HCT) has been mandated by the Annual Conference to formulate a plan and make recommendations to the Church Council regarding the path forward in this Covid-19 Pandemic.

Our first move was to launch a survey of the congregation (online and in this issue of the Window) regarding your feelings, expectations and plans. Thank you for your participation, the data you provide will be important in helping us move forward.

We have made no decisions prior to receiving the survey, but the following is my (imperfect) impressions and summary of our current thoughts and discussions:

We affirm the values expressed by Bishop Lewis and the Annual Conference placing the highest value on the safety of the congregation and the safety of the community. Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with the Lord. We may not like all the in-person restrictions placed on us, but we do appreciate that they are based on the best available science. (I don't like it when my doctor tells me to eat less and exercise more, but that's not saying that she is wrong.)

- We feel the Trinity is blessed to have quality livestream worship that reaches a wide congregation and is helping to hold the church together.
- We have great concern regarding the quality of the type of weekly in-person worship we would be able to offer under the current Conference Protocols.
- Our first steps for re-opening this summer may well focus on small groups. (Classes, circles, etc. with social distancing and precautions.). The 12-Step groups that have met at Trinity are of great concern to us as well.
- Several Outdoor Worship Experiences are also a possibility this summer.
- We have a plan for Holy Communion that the Pastors feel has theological integrity that we hope will be approved by the Conference.

Our process is to digest the results of the survey, draft a plan for the Church Council, and once that plan has been approved, send it to the District Superintendent for his ratification. This is what will be happening in the weeks ahead. It may interest you to know that, anecdotally, our status and process seem similar to that of comparable churches in the Conference.

I want to say thank you for your faith, your steadfast support and your calm and positive spirit in these unprecedented times. Trinity is very strong. We have nothing to fear, for our God is able.

Blessings

What's Happening in Trinity KIDS Ministry?

As a result of COVID-19, we are not going to be able to have Kids Camp this summer as we had envisioned it. However, we are going to be offering a Virtual Kids Camp experience this summer! We are excited about this opportunity to connect with kids and their families!

We are asking families to register so that we can create a take-home kit for them to pick up at the church the week before our Kids Camp goes live! We will hold our Virtual Kids Camp the week of July 20th (Mon.-Thurs.); however the videos will remain on the website through August so that families have the flexibility to participate when it works best for their schedule!

Here are the Details:

- Kits with all needed supplies and directions for all activities will be available for pick-up at church the week of July 13th.
- Prerecorded videos will go live each day at 9:00 am on the Trinity website, but can be viewed at any time. These are designed to be fairly independent and will last for about an hour and will include music, games, and bible stories.
- Daily activities will be provided that you will complete with your child.
- We will be providing Zoom sessions each day at 3pm to allow for fellowship and reflection.

- These activities are geared at an elementary school age level; however kids older and younger can participate.
- Virtual Kids Camp is free. You may give a donation to go towards the cost of supplies (suggested donation is $10).

What could virtual Kids Camp look like for you? Here are just a few ideas:

- A small group of families pick one week this summer to meet up each morning. You spend an hour or so watching the video of the day, doing the game and craft that are in each box, and praying together. Then, the kids get to play in the yard while the adults catch up on lost fellowship time.
- There are a couple of other families in your neighborhood that you'd like to get to know better. You invite them to a Friday Night Kids Camp series. Each Friday you get together for dinner or dessert (easy now that you're a pro at curbside pick-up), followed by Kids Camp time.
- You have really missed those grandkids, so you plan for them to stay with you for a few days in July or August. You have a Kids Camp kit for each one and space out the lessons so that they get to do all 4 "days" in whatever time they are with you.
- You have a heart for reaching out into the community to people who wouldn't normally set foot inside a church building. You see this as an excellent opportunity to bring Kids Camp out to those kids, so you decide to brainstorm ways to do that.

This summer resource, Grow Like Jesus, is an interactive book for elementary-aged kids! Inside are 8 habit-forming challenges to help kids grow in all areas of life! Challenges focus on growing your mind (wisdom), developing your body (strength), growing your faith, and developing a heart for others. All kids who sign up for our virtual Kids Camp will receive a book! If your child or grandchild isn't participating in Kids Camp but would like a book, contact Jen Williams at williams@trinityumc.net and she will get one to you!

Helping Out

During the last few months, Trinity member, Jim Scott, has been doing some research about our church. Jim located "home movies" taken by O.M. Stevenson. Taken in 1952, those in color home movies capture the initial stages of construction for the first permanent Trinity church building on Forest Avenue.

The movies show the lot being cleared, the first plot laying by the surveyors, excavation of the basement what we now call Eaton Hall, footings, walls of block and brick, and setting of steel. Occasionally in the background, the houses on Stuart Hall Road come into sight. Those houses are still in place today.

Clearly, a lot has happened on this plot since 1952. I would imagine the Trinity members who initiated the move of the church from the city to our present location would be interested to see how the place has changed.

One thing that hasn't changed about our building and grounds is the constant need to keep them in good shape. Each generation of Trustees with the financial support of the congregation has managed to keep the place up and running. Doing that is not always easy. But, one of the keys in the upkeep has been and will continue to be our people.

We recently asked for help with some chores around our building and grounds. So far, six brave souls have volunteered their assistance. Of those six, three were Trinity youth: Anna Estes, a rising sixth grader at Tuckahoe Middle School, Landon Romanosky, a rising junior at Collegiate, and Drew Thompson a rising senior at Steward.

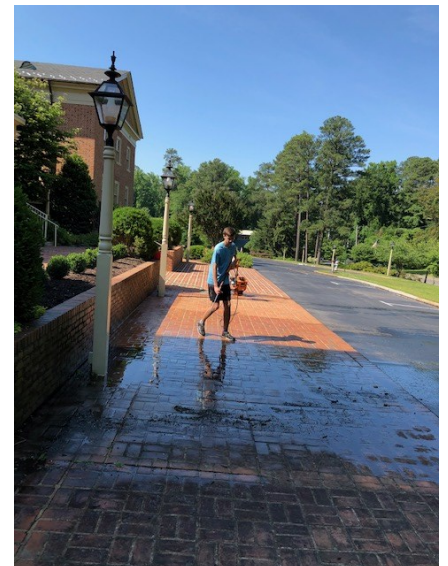

Anna and her mom, Betsy, worked on weeding assorted landscaped borders on our grounds. Landon and his dad, Walt, cleaned up the interior of the cooling tower, removed weeds from the playground, and removed some dead shrubs from a landscaped area in the parking lot along Rock Creek Road.

Drew showed up with his power washer, and in two days cleaned up the brick sidewalks and walls in front of the Welcome Center.

Joe (Rembrandt) Andrews used his skills to do some badly needed painting on the east side of the Sanctuary. This included some challenging prep work before painting could even start on the railings in that area.

We are appreciative of the work completed by these individuals. The time and energy they gave made improvements for our building and grounds.

Once the building was dedicated and opened in 1955, the needs for taking care of this place we love started. Taking care of the building and grounds will never go away. If you are interested in helping out, please contact Bill Pike.

As we age, sometimes our mobility becomes a challenge. Stairs in our own homes can become difficult to navigate. Trinity member, Anne Pollard, has an almost new Stairlift that she would like to give to a family who would benefit from having it in their home. If you or someone you know has a need for a Stairlift, please contact Anne by calling 804-514-1669.

Flower Tributes

Even though we are not gathering for in-person worship yet, we are still purchasing altar flowers, which you may have noticed if you watch the livestream Worship on Sunday mornings. If you would like to have a flower tribute printed in the bulletin one Sunday, please contact Paula Cadden at pcadden@trinityumc.net or 804-288-6057 ext. 201. If you tune in to our livestream Worship, you are aware that there is a bulletin available online for you to download – the flower tribute would be printed in this bulletin. The cost is $50. The information I would need from you is the date for the flower tribute, who the tribute is for and who it is given by – i.e., “in memory of _____ given by his/her family.” or “given by _____ in honor of our 25th wedding anniversary.”

Old Cell Phones Needed

Please donate your old cell phones (with chargers, without service contracts, and with personal information removed) to be given to survivors of abuse to call 911. Bring them to Missions Central, the room down the hall from the church office toward the sanctuary, and leave them in the designated receptacle there. This is a great way to recycle and could save someone's life. (Anne Burch, 270-1661)
